To Whom It May Concern:

For the past 35 years I have represented a variety of public and private companies on securities and corporate governance matters and accordingly, have interacted with many competent, dedicated and personable professionals so I am not easily impressed.

Therefore, I take great pleasure in styling this letter of commendation for Pat Brown-John. Pat thoroughly trained Jordan (German Shepherd), consistent with my instructions in every respect and her fee was very reasonable. She is extremely personable and routinely exhibits a genuine interest and passion for the animals she trains. Her dedication and commitment to purpose are truly remarkable.
